

María Isabel Romero Arias

Social and market analyst. Expert in tourism. Auxiliary of childcare and nursing.

I spend several years in activities related to trade, early childhood education and politics in Madrid. In 1982, after moving my residence to the city of Córdoba, I started my new career in the ambit of sociology, marketing, tourism and business administration. Developing my activity since then in different companies and projects. Muslim since 1998, I am currently General Director of the Halal Institute of the Islamic Board since 2003 and President of the Islamic Board since 2012. In addition, I have carried out various activities related to the development of Islam in Spain:

- Project Director at the Islamic Board 1996 - 2013.
- Project Director in the Spanish Federation of Islamic Religious Entities (FEERI): 2004 - 2006.
- Founder of the Halal Institute of the Islamic Board: 1997
- Founder and president of the Citizen Platform against Islamophobia.